

Kylie E. Mote

Areas of Practice

- Business and Corporate
- Health Care Litigation
- Health Care Fraud and Abuse
- Labor and Employment

Kylie Mote is an associate at Milligan Lawless. Her practice includes the representation of physicians, physician groups, and health care organizations in a variety of health care matters. Prior to joining the firm, Kylie was a Public Interest Fellow at the Arizona Supreme Court's staff attorneys' office.

While in law school, Kylie worked as a legal extern for the Arizona Center for Disability Law and the Ruth V. McGregor Family Protection Clinic.

Kylie's recent experience includes:

- Advising clients on routine business and corporate matters;
- Providing guidance to health care providers and organizations in matters relating to internal investigations, compliance program development, and reporting requirements;
- Representing employers and employees in matters involving the Fair Labor Standards Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and Arizona wage payment statutes;
- Evaluating relationships among health care providers to determine compliance with fraud and abuse laws, including the Stark Law, the False Claims Act, and the Anti-Kickback Act;
- Representing and defending physicians against Arizona Medical Board complaints and in privilege revocation actions; and
- Employment law litigation including cases involving non-competition agreements.

MILLIGAN LAWLESS, P.C.

Education

- Arizona State University, Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law
J.D., cum laude
William H. Pedrick Scholar, CALI award recipient
- University of Phoenix
M.A., Special Education
- Arizona State University
B.A., History

Bar Admissions

- Arizona

Associations & Memberships

- Maricopa County Bar Association American Health Lawyers Association
- American Health Lawyers Association
- Arizona Women Lawyers Association